Executive Capital, LLC Announces New Hire Marcia Rash

Rochester, MN—June 9, 2008—Executive Capital, a regional full service, wealth management firm, is pleased to welcome a new team member.

Marcia Rash, joined the firm's wealth management services practice as a Wealth Advisor. In this new role, Ms. Rash will work closely with the Firm's managing partner on strategic issues and wealth management systems.

Ms. Rash brings over 30 years of work in financial services and financial analysis to Executive Capital clients. Her work includes extensive private and commercial banking experience, working particularly with Business Owners and High Net Worth Clients. Marcia's background also includes comprehensive wealth management in the forms of investment management, tax, estate, legacy/ generational, financial and insurance planning.

Dan Langworthy, Principal of Executive Capital said: "We are delighted to have someone with Marcia's extraordinary reputation, stature and experience as part of our Firm. Her role as leader in the financial services industry including tax related fields will be extremely valuable to us as we continue to grow the business of Fortress Financial."

Ms. Rash will oversee the Firm's WealthVision system an exclusively powerful web-based wealth-planning tool offering account aggregation, modular and comprehensive financial planning, and an online storage facility that helps clients keep track of valuable documents. "Marcia's role as a wealth management advisor will be extremely valuable to clients as she will facilitate a comprehensive view of our client's financial assets," concludes Langworthy.
